The 9 Best Holiday Destinations in February 2023

If you've been looking to get away for a romantic break but haven't been sure of where to focus your search, don't worry – the following nine options are undeniably some of the most amazing holiday destinations in February 2023 to consider.

#1 Maldives

It might be chilly in other parts of the world, but the Maldives are toasty warm in February – usually around 26 degrees Celsius. As such, it's definitely one of the best times to go, as the days are long, the skies are (usually!) clear, and the weather is absolutely perfect! #4 Turks and Caicos

Visiting Turks and Caicos is the perfect time of year to take in the surreal beauty of these stunning Caribbean islands! Activities such as whale watching, horseback riding, and the like all make for an amazing holiday – or if you feel like something a little more laid back, why not just treat yourself to some time on the amazing golden sands of Turks and Caicos' amazing beaches? #6 Morocco

If you've been planning a visit to Morocco, February 2023 could be the perfect time to go! Indeed, things tend to be a little more laid back during February for Moroccan holidays – which makes things more affordable and means you can pack so much more into your holiday without having to wait around in queues and the like. The weather is pleasantly warm without being so hot, too, so this makes it easier to take in the most of the stunning region.

#7 Florence

Let's be real for a minute – if you're heading away for a special Valentine's Day break with your partner, you want to ensure your special trip will be packed with a romantic atmosphere and experiences. Luckily, this is where Florence might just be the perfect destination! It's not quite as packed as the "big choices" for romantic holidays (we're thinking of Rome, Paris, and Tuscany), but it still offers all of the breathtaking sights you've always dreamed of!

#8 Thailand

If you're feeling tired of dull and dismal weather, visiting Thailand this February and staying in some of the region's most stunning luxury rentals might be the ideal option. Not only is it pleasantly warm without being oppressively hot, but there are also plenty of amazing activities to see and do. And, as with Morocco, things tend to be a little slower during this month, so you won't have to worry about being caught up in huge waves and crowds of tourists. Make sure to stop at some of Thailand's exquisite national parks to really discover the region's beauty and serenity. Book one of our villas in Thailand click here

#9 Cape Town

Cape Town is a great destination for February 2023 that's both comfortable in temperature and much quieter in terms of tourist numbers, allowing you to see everything this stunning region has to offer. Almost exclusive beaches and amazing opportunities to see endangered wildlife – we strongly recommend looking out for the region's penguin population – make a trip to Cape Town in February a truly unforgettable experience! Don't forget to try some of the region's amazing wine tours, too – you'll be in for a treat!
